

Cruse Bereavement Care Conference 2008

Come join us for what promises to be an exciting programme of plenaries, workshops and seminars set in the leafy grounds of the University of Leicester...

Cruse Bereavement Care

Cruse Bereavement Care is the only nationwide charity in the UK that is dedicated to helping anyone who has been bereaved through death.

18th—20th September 2008

Who should attend?

Anyone who works with bereaved people, or has an interest in bereavement, including:

- PALS Officers
- Care home workers
- Healthcare workers
- Hospice staff
- Funeral directors
- Bereavement services officers
- Housing association officers
- Pension services workers

Highlights for 2008 include:

- Five inspirational keynote plenary speakers including Julie Stokes OBE, resident psychologist throughout Channel 4's The Mummy Diaries and founder of the remarkable charity Winston's Wish.
- Workshops on bereavement-related issues and alternative therapies such as meditation, yoga, storytelling and intuitive painting
- Specialist seminars focused on particular client groups, including: Bereavement in prisons, Anticipatory grief, Children, Suicide and many more
- Superb opportunities for networking within the beautiful grounds of Leicester University
- Brand new first class accommodation
- Superb food including a four course evening meal
- An exciting selection of evening entertainments

"My first bereavement conference and I was Very impressed!"

Visit www.cruse.org.uk for full details or email conference@cruse.org.uk